‘Get Your Game On’ – INSTANTS

Video:

Shows two examples of instant lottery tickets: Instant Crossword and Multi Millionaire.

Voiceover:

Today we're going to learn how to play instant scratch games. There are several different scratch games to choose from, and there are three basic things to consider when choosing which game to play. They are price, game style, and prize amount.

Text on screen:

PLAYSMART TIP: Tickets typically range from $1 - $30.

Voiceover:

If you're choosing your game based on price, some could cost a dollar, some could cost thirty dollars.

Video:

The prices of the example tickets are enlarged for visual aid.

Voiceover:

Prices can always be found in the top corner, here. Or you can choose by game play style. There are two styles of play.

Video:

Two examples of Instant Lottery tickets, X Money and The Big Spin, are shown.

Voiceover:

One is called Quick play. This style keeps it easy with a single scratch area to play.

PLAYSMART TIP: Choose the game that best suits your play style.

Voiceover:

Or you can choose by prize amount. Some games have a top prize worth millions of dollars, and some offer smaller prizes with better chances of winning. Now all that's left to do is scratch the play area, then double check your ticket at an OLG retailer

Video:

Shows a phone with the OLG Lotto App open and ready to scan a ticket.

Voiceover:

or use the OLG Lottery app to see if you're a winner.

Text on screen:

PLAYSMART TIP: Always sign your ticket and check the expiry date.

Voiceover:

And always be sure to sign your ticket. For prizes of under $1,000, take your ticket to your OLG retailer to get it verified at the terminal. And don't wait too long to claim your prize either. Oh, and one more thing:

Text on screen:

PLAYSMART TIP: Winning tickets are randomly distributed across Ontario. All stores have an equal chance of selling them.

Voiceover:

Tickets are distributed randomly to all retailers. No stores are luckier than others, and buying more tickets does not change the odds of any ticket winning. That's it. Now you're ready to play smart.
